REMARKS

Entry of this Amendment is proper under 37 CFR §1.116, since no new claims or issues are presented and the only claim amendments involve a search for wording that the Examiner would find more acceptable for an allowance. As best understood from the Examiner's comments on pages 2 and 3 of the latest Office Action, the Examiner agrees that the present invention is distinguished from the prior art currently of record, if acceptable wording can be found.

Claims 1-7 and 10-19 are all the claims presently pending in the application.

It is noted that Applicant specifically states that no amendment to any claim herein should be construed as a disclaimer of any interest in or right to an equivalent of any element or feature of the amended claim.

With respect to the prior art rejections, claims 1-7 and 10-19 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as anticipated by U.S. Patent Publication No. US 2004/0043798 to Amerga et al. Claims 18 and 19 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as anticipated by US Patent No. 6,477,372 to Otting et al.

Applicant does not repeat the arguments presented in the previous Amendment, since, as best understood from the Examiner's comments on pages 2 and 3 in the latest Office Action, the Examiner agrees that the initial-camping feature of the present invention is allowable if appropriate wording is incorporated into the claims. Therefore, although Applicant believes that the position stated by the Examiner simply ignores the plain meaning of the phraseology "... for a first time ...", the independent claims are amended in an attempt to find wording that the Examiner might find more palatable, prior to proceeding to Appeal.

In view of the foregoing, Applicant submits that claims 1-7 and 10-19, all the claims presently pending in the application, are patentably distinct over the prior art of record and are in condition for allowance. The Examiner is respectfully requested to pass the above application to issue at the earliest possible time.

Should the Examiner find the application to be other than in condition for allowance, the Examiner is requested to contact the undersigned at the local telephone number listed below to discuss any other changes deemed necessary in a telephonic or personal interview.
